

This is how the website works

---

Welcome to the website deutschland.de!

In this text, we explain:

- how the website works.
  - what you can find on the website.

This is the logo of deutschland.de.

You can always find it in the top left corner of the website.

You can click on it.

Then you return to the homepage.

To the right of the logo,
there are these words.

These are the topics and areas of the website.

News Politics Life Knowledge Business Culture Environment Working Stud >

---

You can move the words
with the arrows on the left and on the right.

This way, you can view all topics.

When you click on a word,
the page with that topic will open.

---

News Politics Life Knowledge Business Culture Environment Working Stud >

---

In the top right corner,
there are these 3 signs.

---

The magnifying glass is the sign for the search function.

When you click on it,

you can type in a word
and search for the word on the whole website.

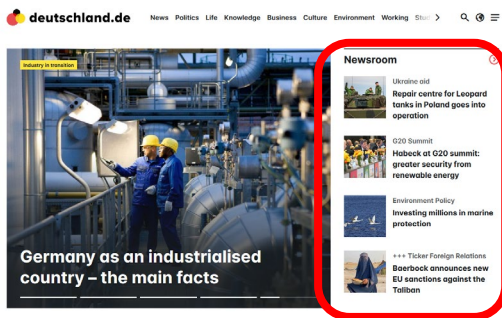

The globe is the sign for languages.
When you click on it,
you can change the language of the website.

The 3 dashes open a list on the right.
The list shows the areas of the website.
And you can change:

- the size of the text
- the colour of the background

Under the top bar of the website
there is a big picture.
The picture changes by itself.
On the right of the picture is the newsroom.
This is the area for current news.
